

TSAS Summer Academy
July 21-26, 2013

Suggested Readings

Each TSAS Summer Academy presenter has recommended 1-3 short readings for attendees to read prior to arrival at the Academy. Although not mandatory, you will want to familiarize yourselves with the literature. Most of these readings are accessible on pdf's and links are provided below. If a link does not work, cut and paste into your browser. Some are unavailable online but are available at libraries / for purchase online.

Day 1, Monday July 22nd

---

• Prof. Jez Littlewood, Carleton University

- 1) David A. Charters, 'The (Un)Peaceable Kingdom? Terrorism and Canada before 9/11' IRPP Policy Matters 9:4 (2008) pp.1-43
<http://www.irpp.org/en/research/security-and-democracy/the-unpeaceable-kingdom/>
- 2) An additional optional choice for participants unfamiliar with the subject of terrorism is to consider borrowing or purchasing: Richard English, 'Terrorism: How to Respond' (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2010)
<http://global.oup.com/academic/product/terrorism-9780199229987;jsessionid=A38664247E69BDE6BAC9B41A4291FF1D?cc=ca&lang=en&>

You may also purchase this book on Amazon at:
<http://www.amazon.com/dp/0199590036>

- 3) While this short book is focused on the British experience with the Provisional IRA (Irish Republican Army) and the contemporary threat from Al Qaeda and its ilk, the text provides an excellent and very accessible introduction to the subject of terrorism from the perspective of a liberal democracy. You can also watch Richard English speak to the central themes of his book at:
